◆ CHASE TURNS INTO FATAL CRASH

A roll-over traffic crash during a chase on Congress Parkway Tuesday night, claimed the life of a Niota man. Athens police say Terrance Smith, 45, was chasing a car occupied by Melvin McDermott and Erica Moody while pointing a rifle out of his window. Smith lost control of his vehicle on Congress Parkway near Million Street, and the vehicle flipped several times, ejecting him. He was airlifted to Erlanger with head trauma, and later died. The "rifle" turned out to be a BB gun. Police say the chase followed an argument between Smith and McDermott at Lee Manor Apartments.
