◆ DPA CARRIER HURT IN TRAFFIC CRASH

Teresa Presley, a carrier for the Daily Post-Athenian, was transported to Woods Memorial Hospital following a two-vehicle crash on Old Federal Road just off 8th Street in Etowah around 4 p.m. Monday. Her car collided head on with a 2010 Chrysler Sebring driven by James Cockram. The Etowah Rescue Squad and the Etowah City Fire Department responded to the scene. (Photo by Jay Thomson)

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

◆ India's energy crisis entered its second day Tuesday, knocking off power to 620 million people, in the world's largest blackout. Traffic lights went dark, trains stalled, and workers were stranded in coal mines. India's power minister blames the crisis on certain states taking more than their allotted share of electricity.

◆ Congressional Republican investigators have singled out five employees in the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives to blame for the botched anti-gunrunning operation known as Fast and Furious.

◆ Michael Haley, the husband of South Carolina Governor Nikki Haley, heads to Afghanistan for a year-long deployment with the National Guard in January. Haley is a first lieutenant in the South Carolina National Guard.

◆ Singer and actor Tony Martin died at his home in Los Angeles of natural causes. He was 98. Martin appeared in more than 30 films. His hit records included "There's No Tomorrow" and "La Vie En Rose."

◆ On Wall Street, The Dow Jones Industrial Average was down 64.33 at 13,008.68.

Her Eyes Are Set On Nashville

Angel Thurman of Meigs County has dreams of hitting it big in Music City. Angel, who is 23, has been singing publicly and writing songs for about two years. When she's not singing she's working at Shaw Industries. Angel loves singing traditional country songs in the style of Loretta Lynn and Dolly Parton. She has just recorded her first CD titled "I Turned Out Just Fine." She wrote five of the songs on the CD including the title song. She was interviewed recently on WYXI Radio. For more information about Angel, visit Angel Thurman on Facebook.
