◆ FOUR NEW HABITAT HOMES ON THE WAY

Ground was broken recently on a plot of land on which four new Habitat For Humanity homes will be built. The land was donated by the Jeff Wilkins family and is part of the old Dodson Farm. It is located on Tellico Avenue at Hammerhill Road. Work on the first of the new houses is expected to begin within the next few weeks. (Photo by Habitat board member Fred Underdown)

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

◆ Arapahoe County District Attorney George Brauchler told the court that justice for James Holmes is death. Brauchler announced that he will seek the death penalty against the man accused of shooting 70 people and killing 12 during a midnight attack at an Aurora, Colorado movie theater last summer.

◆ Caroline Kennedy, daughter of President John F Kennedy, is expected to be nominated as the U.S. ambassador to Japan. Kennedy is a lawyer and author of 10 books, including a text on the Bill of Rights and a collection of her mother's favorite poems.

◆ A telephone poll of 861 adults conducted in March revealed that Americans wish they had studied more in college. They are telling their children to finish their degrees, and not drop out of school. Almost half of the adults questioned in the survey said they wished they had made more of an effort in college, while another 40 percent said they should have done more networking, which is typically associated with the professional world.

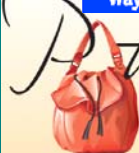

◆ The most populous city in the nation to enter bankruptcy is Stockton, California. The bankruptcy declaration is necessary to allow the city to continue to provide basic services. Stockton has become emblematic of government excess and the financial calamity that resulted when the nation's housing bubble burst.

Rumor Control

You may have heard the rumor going around that George Soros and a company called Freedom Group have bought out Marlin and several other firearms manufacturers in an attempt to gain control of firearms companies in the U.S.

We've checked the rumor with Snopes.Com, an Internet site that specializes in confirming or squelching rumors. Snopes.Com says the rumor is completely "false and baseless." Snopes says according to the National Rifle Association, George Soros has no connection with Freedom Group. The NRA also says the Freedom Group's owners and investors are strong supporters of the Second Amendment and are avid hunters and shooters.
