State & Local News

◆ IT'S SPRING CLEANING TIME IN ATHENS

Weather forecasters say that the weather on Saturday will be sunny and mild. Perhaps you should do your spring cleaning and get ready for the annual Clean Up Week in the City of Athens, which begins on Monday, April 22nd and continues through the 26th. You should place items curbside (3-5 feet from the road) on or before Monday. Items that will be picked-up are: brush, unmounted tires, furniture, appliances without compressor/coolant lines, limited building materials, bagged leaves, & yard sale junk. For info, call public works at 744-2746 or Keep McMinn Beautiful at 745-2086.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

- ✓ APRIL 19: There will be a safety awareness family night presented by the Rogers Creek PTO this evening at 6 p.m. at the school. The event is free with information every parent needs to know about technology, home, personal, & vehicle safety.
- ✓ MAY 1: The Athens Kiwanis Club's Golf Classic will be held at Springbrook Golf & Country Club. Lunch begins at Noon and shotgun starts at 1 p.m. All proceeds go to fund programs and activities for school aged children living in McMinn County. Call 423-745-3062 for more details.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

- ◆ On April 22 & 23, sometime between midnight and sunrise, you might be able to observe the annual Lyrid meteor shower. Meteor showers occur when the earth's orbit intersects the path of a group of particles which are the remains of comets that orbit the sun on a regular schedule.
- ◆ A Waco, Texas fertilizer plant exploded Wednesday night killing as many as 15 people and injuring over 160. Apparently West Fertilizer Company planned to transport anhydrous ammonia without making or following a security plan. The plant was fined $10,000 last summer for safety violations by federal regulators, but after describing corrective actions that were taken by the plant, the government agreed to accept a fine of only $5,250. The blast was reported to be heard at least 40 miles away and had the impact of a small earthquake.
- ◆ A Mississippi man, Paul Kevin Curtis, was arrested on suspicion that he sent potentially poisoned letters to President Obama and Republican Sen. Roger Wicker of Mississippi. Curtis has been charged with threatening the life of the president. Curtis faces maximum possible penalties of 15 years in prison, $500,000 in fines and three years of supervised release if convicted.
