Stolen Van Hits Bank Drive-Thru

The driver of the van pictured below was taken into custody after a foot chase late Wednesday night. Sources say the Drug Task Force tried to stop the van, which reportedly had been stolen. It traveled north on U.S. 11 from Riceville with the lights off and in the wrong lane. McMinn County deputies, the THP & APD joined in the chase. The suspect wrecked the van at the Citizens National Bank drive-thru on Park Street at South

White Street in Athens. He ran on foot, but was captured. Aaron Bain now faces 8 charges including DUI 3rd offense. (Van photo courtesy of Joe Littleton)

V.A. CLINIC UPDATE

The Department of Veterans Affairs says it has narrowed the location of the new Athens clinic down to three places. Those building owners have to submit more information to the VA Department by May 15th. The three locations will then undergo technical evaluation, and one of them will be selected. Meantime, hiring of staff for the new clinic is underway. The target date for opening is October.

National & International News

- ◆ North Korea is being pressed by the United States to free Kenneth Bae, an American citizen who was arrested in North Korea for taking pictures of starving orphans. Bae was sentenced to 15 years hard labor for unspecified crimes against the state.
- ◆ A federal judge ruled on Thursday that there was enough evidence for a grand jury to consider indicting James Everett Dutschke, a 41-year-old martial arts instructor from Tupelo, Mississippi. Dutschke is accused of mailing poison-laced letters to President Obama and other U.S. officials.
- ◆ The FBI has added Joanne Chesimard, the first-ever woman to its list of Most Wanted Terrorists. The FBI has offered up to $1 million for information leading to her arrest. Her last known location was in Cuba in 1984, where she received asylum.
