Local & State News

◆ ACCIDENT REPORTS ARE NOW ONLINE

The Tennessee Department of Safety is now making it possible for you to access traffic accident reports online. The public can now retrieve the reports on the Internet 24 hours a day, seven days a week, for a fee of $10. Just go to www.tnbuycrash.com. You can still visit any Tennessee Highway Patrol district office or police agency in person to purchase crash reports for a $4 fee.

◆ ETOWAH WOMAN FINDS LOADS OF CASH

An Etowah woman did the right thing after she and her 16-year-old daughter found a purse stuffed with cash on the beach at Daytona Beach, Florida. Darlene Curley says she and her daughter were about to take a dip in the ocean on Sunday when they spotted the purse on the sand. They notified the beach patrol. Officers found over $13,000 in cash inside the purse. A woman from Maryland later reported her purse was missing, and police returned it to her. Ms. Curley says the owner called her to say thank you.

◆ ATHENS DETECTIVE COMPLETES TBI COURSE

Detective Sergeant Heith Willis of the Athens Police Department has graduated from the TBI's State Academy. The 6-week academy teachers leadership, law, and undercover investigating.

NATIONAL & WORLD NEWS

◆ President Obama and his wife Michelle surprised visitors at the White House yesterday, as tours of the US presidential residence resumed after an eight-month break sparked by government budget woes. He and the first lady, shook hands and chatted for several minutes with tourists who appeared shocked and thrilled. White House tours will be offered three days a week, down from five days a week before the break.

◆ After an initial phase of shell-shocked damage control, President Obama's efforts to save his signature health care are taking on an aggressive tone. The new approach emphasizes Affordable Care Act benefits that are already in effect and don't require navigating a botched website, promoting the law's success stories, blaming Republicans and the news media in equal measure for the bad news.

◆ India launched its first spacecraft bound for Mars on Tuesday. This is a complex mission that it hopes will demonstrate and advance Indian technology for space travel.

◆ Mayor Rob Ford of Toronto, Canada admitted that he once smoked crack, months after a video allegedly showing him taking the drug surfaced and sparked calls for his resignation. Ford, however, denied he was an addict.

Veterans Day Plans Announced

Monday, November 11th, is Veterans Day. Several activities will be held in Athens, starting with an Old-Fashioned Street Dance this Friday night at the Market Park Pavilion from 6 to 9 p.m.

On Saturday - the annual Veterans Parade will take place through downtown Athens starting at 3 p.m. The parade begins at the Courthouse Annex parking lot and goes around the Courthouse, ending with a special program at Market Park. All veterans wishing to walk or ride in the parade should meet at the Annex prior to 3 p.m. for the line-up. A dinner for veterans and their families will follow at the pavilion. The grand marshal of the parade will be a veteran of the Korean War.

On Monday, the annual Veterans Day Ceremony will take place starting at 11 a.m. at the VFW Post on North Congress Parkway.

The organizers of the McMinn County Veterans Weekend include American Legion Post Commanders Dick Pelley and Gordon Mikitka, and Veterans Affairs Director Deborah Cox.

The Tennessee State Parks Department has announced its annual free state parks day for all Tennessee veterans with one free night of camping and/or a complimentary round of golf on Veterans Day. Veterans must show appropriate identification including a Tennessee driver's license and proof of veteran's status.

Obituaries

Barry Tischhauser, age 61, of Athens died Monday at his residence. He worked for Robinson Enterprises for more than 15 years. A celebration of his life will be held Saturday, November 16th, at Christ Community Church with visitation from 2 to 3 p.m. Serenity Funeral Home of Etowah is in charge of arrangements.

Patricia Gail Cabe, age 60, of Etowah died Tuesday at her residence. Graveside services will be at 1 p.m. Thursday at Cedar Grove Cemetery. No formal visitation will be held. Bordwine Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

TUESDAY'S MARKET REPORT: U.S. stocks closed little changed, recovering from earlier losses which were spurred by lowered growth and higher unemployment forecasts for the Euro-region. U.S. Treasury prices closed down for the day. The Dow Jones Industrial Average was down 20.90 at 15,618.22. The Standard & Poor's 500 Index was down 4.96 at 1,762.97, and the NASDAQ Composite Index was up 3.27 at 3,939.86. Volume on the New York Stock Exchange was moderate, with 693.34 million shares traded. Decliners outnumbered advancers by roughly a 5-to-2 margin.
