State & Local News

◆ CITIZENS'S LAW ENFORCEMENT ACADEMY

This fall, Tennessee Wesleyan College and the McMinn County Sheriff's Department will offer a Citizen's Law Enforcement Academy course. The 10-week program is designed to provide insight into the policies and operations of criminal justice agencies and to allow participants to share ideas about improving the quality of life for the citizens of our community. The course is open to the general public, and will be offered at no cost to local citizens.

The course will be offered on Thursdays from 5:30 to 8 p.m. at the McMinn County Justice Center starting on August 27th. Anyone interested in attending should contact the McMinn County Sheriff's Department or TWC for application information. (The photo shows, from top left: TWC assistant professor of criminal justice Dr. Bill Watts; TWC behavioral science department chair Linda Garza; McMinn Co. Sheriff Joe Guy; & TWC criminal justice instructor Tad Roberts)
