Local & State News

◆ TEENAGER DIES IN I-75 WRECK

Northbound traffic on Interstate 75 was backed up for several hours Tuesday morning due to a fatal crash at mile marker 56. The Tennessee Highway Patrol says a car was traveling northbound in the left lane around 6 a.m. Tuesday near mile marker 56 when it left the roadway and began to veer sideways in the median, striking the guardrail. The guardrail hit the driver's side door, then struck the driver, pushing her into the back seat. The driver died on the scene. She was identified as 17-year-old Hannah N. Eimers of Lenoir City. Her passenger, 18-year-old Rachele Kania of Greenback was injured. Trooper Alex Barger investigated.

NATIONAL & STATE NEWS

◆ Two Iowa police officers, Sgt. Anthony "Tony" Bemino of the Des Moines Police Department and Officer Justin Martin of the Urbandale Police Department, were slain in the line of duty Wednesday morning. The officers were fatally shot about 20 minutes apart. The suspected gunman, 46-year-old Scott Michael Greene, was caught a few hours later and taken into custody in Dallas County, just west of Des Moines. Police believe that Greene was targeting police officers.

"Growing up in a family-owned small business taught me many things. The most important thing I learned was the hard work and dedication required to achieve a set goal. When I'm elected to the Athens City Council that's the approach I'll bring each day to build a better Athens and stronger Tennessee. I humbly ask for your vote November 8, 2016."
