Local & State News

◆ BURRIS AND COKER CALL FOR UNITY

The two men who won the Athens City Council election on Tuesday are both offering a call for unity. Chuck Burris says his top priorities are unity and new businesses. He also says the new council has to get to work to deal with vacancies in the city government, which include the city manager, police chief, human resources director, and public works director. John Coker says he thanks God for the opportunity to serve the people. He says there is a lot of healing to do. He vows to be the glue that will bring the city back together.

◆ VETERANS DAY EVENTS PLANNED

Friday, Nov. 11th, is Veterans Day. The annual Veterans Day ceremony will be held at 11 a.m. at the VFW Post on North Congress Parkway in Athens. Ceremonies will also be held at the Meigs County Courthouse and at the AMVETS Post in Etowah. In Decatur, the Meigs County Historical Society will honor World War II veterans and all other veterans from noon to 2 p.m. at the Meigs County Museum on Smith Avenue. Refreshments will be served. The McMinn County Health Department will be closed Friday for Veterans Day.
