Local and Area News

◆ VETERANS SALUTED FOR THEIR SERVICE

Several Veterans Day ceremonies were held in McMinn County last Friday. One of those was at the VFW Post on North Congress Parkway in Athens. A "Roll Call" was given of those Vets that had passed away since last year. A special presentation was made to the crowd by Carly Moses, a student at Christ Legacy Academy.

FIRE CONSUMES BARN & HAY

A large barn that contained over 600 rolls of hay was destroyed early Sunday around 2:30 a.m. on McMinn County Road 356 near the Monroe County line. Niota, Athens and Englewood Rural Fire Departments responded with Bill Hall of the Niota Rural Fire Department in charge. The photo was taken by Lynn Ingram with the Englewood Rural Fire Department. Meanwhile a Monroe County man, 18-year-old Austin Miller, has been charged with intentionally setting a fire next to two homes near Vonore. The Vonore Fire Department extinguished the blaze before it reached the dwellings.
