A Different Kind of Black Friday

If you don't want to spend the afternoon after Thanksgiving fighting for parking spaces, you could spend the time taking a more extensive look at the fighting that made November 25th, 153 years ago, a Black Wednesday for so many on the slopes of Missionary Ridge's Tunnel Hill. Several historians, including Tennessee Overhill Association's Executive Director Gerald D. Hodge, Jr., will lead a walk that will examine the Battle of Missionary Ridge. The walk will begin at 1 p.m. at the Sherman Reservation on Lightfoot Mill Road on Missionary Ridge and cover about four miles on sidewalks and trails.
