STATE & LOCAL NEWS

◆ IT'S SPRING CLEAN UP NEXT WEEK

Next week, April 17-21, will be Clean Up Week in the City of Athens. The Public Works Department will pick-up your household trash from the curbside during the week. Items that will be picked-up include brush, tires, furniture, appliances, building materials, yard sale junk, and bagged leaves. Tires must be separated from wheels. Compressors and coolant lines must be removed from appliances. Building material is limited to one pickup truck load. Roofing or siding shingles will not be picked up.

◆ ETOWAH EGG HUNT SET FOR APRIL 15TH

The Etowah Easter Egg Hunt will be held Saturday at 11 a.m. at the L&N Depot, sponsored by the Etowah Area Chamber of Commerce. Over 5,000 eggs will cover the lawn for children ages 2-10 to hunt. Registration for the hunt will begin at 10 a.m. Bring your camera and have your kid's picture taken with the Easter Bunny. Prizes will be awarded in all age groups.

◆ COMMUNITY NEWS YOU CAN USE:

✓ Another street closing near the Madison Park Shopping Center has been announced. West Madison Avenue will be closed from Hill Street to Jackson Street this Saturday from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. for the McMinn Indivisible Tax March.

National & World News

◆ Targeting an ISIS cave complex in eastern Afghanistan, the U.S. military for the first time in combat used the 22,000-pound bomb nicknamed the MOAB; "mother of all bombs." It is the second largest non-nuclear weapon in the U.S. military's arsenal.

◆ Texas health authorities are trying to combat a record-breaking outbreak of mumps. The Texas Department of State Health Services reported a total of 221 cases of mumps in Texas this year.

◆ The Pittsburgh Steelers confirmed on Thursday that chairman Dan Rooney has died at the age of 84. Rooney took over control of the team in the 1960's from his father. He led the franchise to four championships in six years.

◆ According to the latest figures released Thursday by the Labor Department, jobless claims fell last week, decreasing by 1,000. For the week ending April 8, the number of people filing for benefits fell from 235,000 the previous week to 234,000. The four week moving average decreased by 3,000 to 247,250.

◆ Apparently, with all the belts and shoe removals at airports in the U.S., passengers are leaving behind a lot of spare change. The Transportation Safety Administration (TSA) has revealed flyers left $867,812.39 behind at safety checkpoints last year.
