◆ POLLS SHOW LEE IN THE LEAD

Early voting for the State Primary and the County General elections ends this Saturday, July 28th. In McMinn County through Tuesday, 2,346 votes have been cast in the Republican primary and 369 in the Democratic primary, while 16 votes have been cast in the general election only. The latest statewide poll shows businessman Bill Lee holding a slim lead over the competitors in the race for the Republican nomination for governor. JMC Analytics conducted a poll of 500 registered Tennessee voters and asked them which candidate they would vote for if the Republican primary was held the day of the call. Twenty-six percent said Bill Lee. Twenty percent said Randy Boyd. Nineteen percent said Diane Black. Beth Harwell received 16 percent, and 17 percent said they are undecided. Respondents also had the most favorable view of Bill Lee than any of the candidates. Fifty-two percent said they have a favorable view of Lee. Thirty-nine percent had a favorable view of Beth Harwell or Randy Boyd, and thirty percent had a favorable opinion of Diane Black.

RACING THE BOSS

When you race the boss, you're supposed to let him win--right? Not according to Brianna Hanson with the Athens Parks Department. She raced Parks Director Austin Fesmire down the hill at the All American Soap Box Derby track in Akron, Ohio, last week. Guess who won? Brianna scooted past Austin just before the finish line. Austin has already demanded a do-over next year.
