State & Local News

◆ PARKISON NAMED SCHOOL DIRECTOR

Lee Parkison has been named to be the next McMinn County Director of Schools to replace Mickey Blevins who is retiring at the end of the year. Parkison is currently the McMinn County Student Management Supervisor. He was one of the four finalists for the position. He was named at the Board of Education meeting Thursday evening.

◆ DENSO DONATES BICYCLE HELMETS

DENSO recently gave away 300 bicycle helmets to first graders in city and county schools. The event was held at Athens Regional Park. There were coloring stations, helmet fitting, and students could wear concussion goggles to see the affects of not wearing a helmet. (Photo by Erin Holbrook)

National and World

◆ President Trump announced Thursday that the remains of two U.S. Army soldiers missing in the Korean War nearly seven decades ago have been identified from the 55 boxes turned over by North Korea this summer.

◆ On Thursday in northeast Maryland, three people were killed and another three were injured after a woman opened fire at a Rite Aid distribution center. The female suspect was a temporary employee at the Aberdeen location. She died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound to the head.

◆ A suspect has been arrested in the fatal attack of a woman who was stabbed multiple times while jogging in a trendy neighborhood in Washington, D.C. The suspect's name has not been released.

◆ In India, dozens of passengers were injured on a Jet Airways flight from Mumbai to Jaipur after their plane lost cabin pressure on Thursday. The flight made an emergency landing 45 minutes after it departed and went back to Mumbai.
