More from the Municipal Code

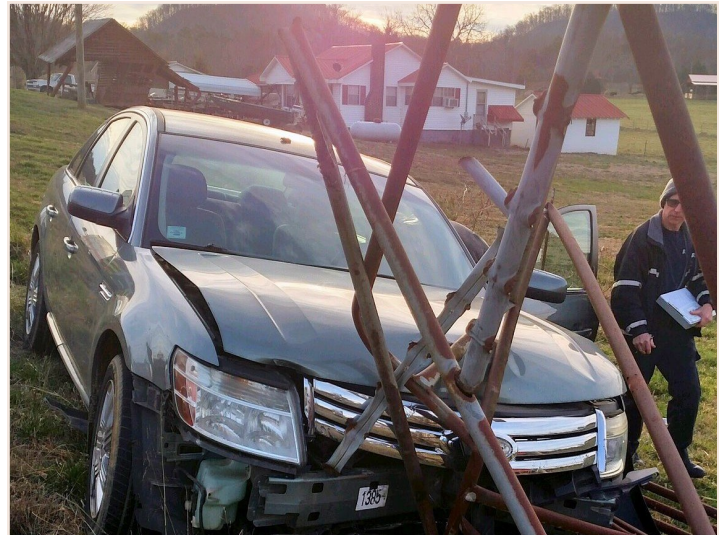

According to the Athens Municipal code, the creating of any unreasonably loud, disturbing, and unnecessary noise is prohibited. That includes blowing horns on any automobile or motorcycle while not in motion except as a danger signal if another vehicle is approaching, apparently out of control. If your vehicle is in motion, horns can be used only as a danger signal after or as brakes are being applied and deceleration of the vehicle is intended.

- The playing of any radio, phonograph, or musical instrument between 11 p.m. and 7 a.m. at a volume loud enough to disturb the quiet of people in any office, hospital, residence, or hotel is prohibited. Yelling, shouting, hooting, whistling, or singing on the public streets at any time loud enough to annoy or disturb the quiet of people in hospitals, dwellings, or hotels is not allowed.
- Keeping animals or birds which make frequent or long continued noise that disturb the comfort or repose of any person in the vicinity is not allowed.
- The use of any automobile or motorcycle so out of repair, so loaded, or in such manner as to cause loud and unnecessary grating, grinding, rattling, or other noises is prohibited.
- The blowing of any steam whistle attached to any stationary boiler, except to give notice of the time to begin or stop work or as a warning of fire or danger, is not allowed.

Car Hits Fence on CR 508

The driver of this 2008 Ford Taurus narrowly escaped injury when he lost control on County Road 508, Englewood, hitting a fence and gage last Saturday morning. Etowah and Englewood Rural Fire Departments along with AMR all responded. Deputy Caleb Latham with the McMinn County Sheriff's Department investigated the accident.

TODAY IN HISTORY—FEBRUARY 12th

- 1809 - Abraham Lincoln, our 16th president, was born. Under his presidency, slavery was abolished.
- 1809 - Charles Darwin was born. His theories on evolution that plants and animals evolved from a few common ancestors contradict Biblical teaching that God created human beings in His own image.
- 1870 - Women in the Utah Territory gained the right to vote.
- 1878 - The baseball catcher's mask was patented. That cut down on a lot of black eyes for catchers.
- 1909 - The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was founded in New York.
- 1935 - Singer Gene McDaniels was born. His biggest hit was "A Hundred Pounds of Clay."
- 1973 - North Vietnam released the first group of U.S. military men being held as prisoners of war.
