Obituaries

♦ James Raymond "Jim" Long, age 64, of Athens, died last Friday. He worked for many years at Colonial Bakery delivering bread in Etowah and later worked as a Certified Public Accountant. In recent years, he and his wife had been restoring the Van Dyke Mansion. A celebration of life will be held later. Companion Funeral Home of Athens is in charge of arrangements.

♦ Dorothy Mae Swafford, 89, of Decatur, died Saturday at her home. A celebration of life will be held Thursday at 7 p.m. at Companion Funeral Home of Athens, with visitation from 4-7 p.m.

FALSE BOMB THREAT CLOSES STORES

A false bomb threat disrupted several businesses in the UGO Shopping Center Monday morning. A caller told a clerk at the Dollar General Store that there was a bomb in the store. Athens police and firefighters cordoned off the area and began searching the Dollar General and adjoining businesses. Two bomb experts from Chattanooga were called, and they quickly determined there was no bomb.

UPDATE: The man who drowned while trying to rescue a woman near County Road 788 was Dale Sanford, age 60.
