Community News You Can Use

✓ Athens Utilities Board advises that power division crews will temporarily close a short section of the northbound lane of Highway 305 (Ingleside Avenue) near the E.G. Fisher Public Library this Sunday, March 31st. The work will begin at 7 a.m. and end by noon. It involves removing old and stringing new power distribution wires and also replacing a power pole just north of the library near the long curve that passes Woodward Avenue. Throughout the work, AUB will have traffic control in place including traffic cones, flashing lights, and crewmembers stationed at each end of the work scene using "stop-go" signs to control the flow of traffic.

✓ National Poetry Month is being celebrated in April at E.G. Fisher Public Library. The library will have a countywide poetry contest. This year's contest aims to encourage young poets across our community to express themselves through poetry. Children and teens ages 8 to 19 are invited to submit one piece of poetry to the library between now and April 12th. Poems can be any form, including free verse, and should be limited to no more than 20 stanzas. The writers of the top three poems in each age group will be invited to read their work at a public reception at the library to be held on April 25th at 6 p.m. The age groups are 8-10, 11-13, 14-16, and 17-19. Poems can be submitted at participating schools or brought to the library. The winners will be announced on April 18th.

Sounds of Music at TWU

The TWU College Band will be combining with the Etowah Town Band for a joint concert this Saturday, March 30th, at 7 p.m. The concert will be held in the Johnson Event Center of the Colloms Campus Center on the TWU campus. The concert will include patriotic marches, hymn arrangements, and various other types of music. Admission is free. The photo below shows the Spring 2018 concert that was held at North Etowah Baptist Church.
