Can You Help Daphney Scruggs?

An Athens woman is fighting for her life. Dalphaela (Daphney) Scruggs was diagnosed with Lupus Nephritis and is in desperate need of a kidney and lung transplant. She has been evaluated as a candidate and has been approved for both transplants at Duke University Medical Center in North Carolina. It costs $35,000 to cover the transplant and all related expenses. Several local individuals are raising funds for Daphney. Donations can be made at the Bowater Credit Union on South Congress Parkway, Athens. Several online payment platforms such as CASH APP, go-fund-me, PayPal and Venmo are accepting contributions for her too. For more information or to make a cash contribution, contact Dr. Vant Hardaway at 423-462-4620.

Obituaries

♦ Steven "Steve" James Wilson, age 52, of Athens, passed away on Sunday at his residence. He was a lifelong resident of McMinn County and worked as a security guard at Flowers Bakery. Funeral Services will be at 7 p.m. Wednesday at Ziegler Funeral Home with visitation from 5 to 7 p.m. prior to the service. Interment will be at 11 a.m. Thursday in Clear Springs Cemetery.

♦ James "Frank" Steed, age 85, of Athens and formerly of Sweetwater, passed away on Monday. He was a well-known farmer and retired from the U.S. Postal Service. He was a retired veteran of the U.S. Air Force and served during the Vietnam War. The family will receive friends on Wednesday at Kyker Funeral Home of Sweetwater from 5 to 7 p.m. A graveside service and interment will be conducted on Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Sunset Cemetery in Madisonville with full military honors.

MONDAY'S MARKET REPORT: Equity markets found some footing to start the week, following last Friday's sell-off. Uncertainties around the omicron variant remain front and center, but early conversation around potentially more-mild-than-feared symptoms for this strain, as well as the continued buy-the-dip reaction that has worked well so far this year, combined to provide a lift to stock prices on Monday. At the closing bell: DJIA 35,135.94 (+236.60); S&P 500 4,655.27 (+60.65); NASDAQ 15,782.83 (+291.18).
