Free Fishing Day in Tennessee

♦ Anyone can fish for free without a license in Tennessee's public waters this Saturday, June 11th. The Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency (TWRA) is providing the 2022 Free Fishing Day on June 11th in hopes of increasing interest in fishing. The day allows anyone the opportunity to enjoy a great outdoor sport to celebrate fishing as a wholesome and healthy recreational activity. Children ages 15 and younger may fish without a license beginning on Free Fishing Day, June 11th through Friday, June 17th. Several thousand pounds of fish are stocked annually by the TWRA. Free Fishing Day and Week apply to Tennessee's public waters, TWRA owned and operated lakes, and state park facilities. Some privately owned pay lakes and ponds continue to charge during this special day and week. Anglers will need to consult with those operators if there are any questions about a facility.

♦ The guest on the Women at the Well radio show, "Hope From the Well," this week will be Paula Blackwell. "Hope From the Well" is heard at 8:15 a.m. Thursday on WYXI RADIO, AM-1390 & FM-94.5
