"Wear Pink Day" Proclamation

In honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month and National Mammography Day, Athens City Mayor Bo Perkinson presented Starr Regional Medical Center with a proclamation declaring Friday, October 21st as "Wear Pink Day." The proclamation encourages all employees and citizens of Athens to join in this worthwhile cause by wearing pink to celebrate the successes and survivors and remember those who lost their lives to breast cancer.

National Mammography Day, a part of Breast Cancer Awareness month, is celebrated on the third Friday of October every year. Breast Cancer Awareness Month supports educating and empowering women to take charge of their own breast health by scheduling regular visits and annual mammograms with their healthcare provider. For questions about scheduling a mammogram, call 423.744.3372. Pictured, left to right, are John McLain, CEO of Starr Regional Medical Center; Bo Perkinson, Mayor, City of Athens; Tammie Lowry, Supervisor of Starr Regional Breast Center; and Dave Santoemma, COO of Starr Regional Medical Center.
