New Food City Store

Recently company officials broke ground on a new Food City located on Georgetown Road in Cleveland. The 50,200 square foot retail supermarket is expected to open early next year and will serve as a replacement for the existing Fresh n' Low location on Candies Creek Lane. The location will include an in-store bakery and deli, complete with a hot food bar, large café seating area, fireplace, Asian wok, fresh food bar offering a variety of soup, salad and fruit selections, hickory wood smoker, brick pizza oven, and fresh sushi. Full-service meat and seafood departments will offer top-quality meats, including Certified Angus Beef and pre-marinated/seasoned oven ready products. In-house butchers will be available to hand cut steaks and fresh meat to order. Expanded grocery, frozen food and produce departments will go well beyond the normal fare with a huge selection of specialty, gourmet, and vegan items. The Food City Floral Boutique will be staffed with a designer seven days a week and offer a full assortment of fresh-cut floral arrangements, bouquets, gift items, and more. Rapid checkout service will be provided by five traditional check-out lanes and seven self-checkouts. GoCart curbside pick-up and home delivery will be available for customers wishing to shop on-line. The store will also include a Food City Pharmacy equipped with a drive-thru, Food City Gas N' Go featuring top quality fuel/diesel, and a Starbucks cafe, offering a wide assortment of blended hot/cold coffees and beverages. "Our customers will enjoy the expanded variety/selection and exciting new conveniences and services the new store will offer," said CEO Steve Smith. Headquartered in Abingdon, Virginia, K-VA-T Food Stores (Food City's parent company) operates 150 retail outlets throughout southeast Kentucky, southwest Virginia, east Tennessee, north Georgia, and Alabama.
