Athens, Tennessee

Obituaries

♦Ida Miller Anders, age 83, of Athens passed away at her home Wednesday August 2nd. She is a Member of Rogers Creek Baptist Church of Decatur. When she was able, Ida would attend church at Antioch Baptist in Athens. There will be no formal services at this time. A graveside service will be held at a later date at Fortner Chapel Cemetery. Good Samaritan Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

♦Michael Swain Barter, age 75, passed away Tuesday, August 1st. He was born in Beverly, Massachusetts. Mike had five patents to his name. He worked with Ethan Allen Furniture to design wood fired boilers. He also designed a system to power an entire hotel and ski resort (The Balsams in Dixville Notch, New Hampshire). Locally, Mike was project manager for the construction of the Tennessee College of Applied Technology in Athens. Using his engineering skills, Mike led numerous projects in nuclear power plants around the country from Maine to Washington. He was an avid fisherman, and pulled more fish than can be counted out of lakes, rivers, and the sea. He was also proficient in many musical instruments including the banjo, guitar, and trumpet (the latter he was occasionally fond of using as a household alarm clock). Mike knew his way around a kitchen as well, and his baked stuffed lobster was legendary. There will be no public services at this time. Companion Funeral Home of Athens is in charge of arrangements.
