I-75 Re-opened after early morning crashes

Heavy fog led to multiple wrecks on both northbound and southbound lanes of Interstate 75 at Hwy 30 near Athens on Saturday. Emergency crews, already responding to a structure fire on Milton Road, were met with poor visibility as reports of accidents began flooding in.

A unified command post was set up at Subway near the Athens exit, with Mutual Aid Chief Billy Roach coordinating response efforts. Multiple emergency agencies, including fire departments, law enforcement, and hazmat teams, responded to the scene to assist.

Authorities are urging drivers to use caution in hazardous weather conditions and remain alert for sudden changes in visibility. Source: Tri-State Mutual Aid - Facebook

No. 8 Tennessee Stuns No. 5 Florida with Dominant 64-44 Win

Despite missing two key starters, No. 8 Tennessee delivered a statement victory over No. 5 Florida, 64-44, on Saturday at a sold-out Food City Center. The Volunteers, playing with only seven scholarship players, extended their SEC record to six consecutive home wins against AP top-five opponents.

Tennessee (18-4, 5-4 SEC) was without senior guard Zakai Zeigler (knee) and forward Igor Miličić Jr. (illness), but their teammates stepped up in a big way. Chaz Lanier led all scorers with 19 points, going 5-for-9 from three-point range, while Jordan Gainey contributed 16 points, five assists, and three steals. Felix Okpara and Jahmai Mashack anchored the paint with eight rebounds each, while Cade Phillips added seven points and three blocks in a career-high of just 28 minutes.

Both teams struggled offensively early, with Tennessee missing its first four shots and Florida missing its first five. The Gators led 6-2 before the Vols responded, taking a 14-13 lead on a Lanier three-pointer. Tennessee then held Florida scoreless for 5:45 and forced six consecutive missed shots. The game remained tight through halftime, with the Vols leading 24-21, despite both teams shooting under 30% from the field in the first half. The Volunteers came out on fire after the break, opening with a 6-0 run and extending it to 14-2 to push their lead to 30-21. A three-pointer by Gainey made it 43-30 with 12:59 remaining, and Tennessee's defense continued to smother the Gators, forcing five straight misses over a six-minute span. A 9-0 Vols run extended the lead to 19 points (52-33) with 6:46 left, effectively sealing the victory. Lanier hit back-to-back threes to push the margin to 21 before Tennessee coasted to the 20-point win.

Tennessee's defense shut down Florida, holding the Gators to just 24.5% shooting (13-of-53) and 14.8% from three (4-of-27)—their worst shooting performance in two decades. Florida's 44 points marked their lowest scoring total in nearly 35 years (since 1990).

The Volunteers wrap up their three-game homestand against No. 20 Missouri on Wednesday at 7 p.m. on the SEC Network.
