Two Flee Crash Scene in McMinn County; THP Investigating

Two men fled on foot after a single-vehicle crash late Wednesday morning in McMinn County.

The crash occurred around 11:30 a.m. on June 25 when a 2009 Dodge Challenger traveling south on County Road 316 near County Road 276 appeared to lose control, cross the center line, and overturn. The vehicle came to rest on its roof.

Witnesses reported seeing two male subjects running from the scene toward the Pilot station at Exit 56.

During the investigation, authorities discovered a handgun, drug paraphernalia, and several forms of identification inside the vehicle.

Responding agencies included the Niota Rural Fire Department, North McMinn Rural Fire Department, McMinn County Sheriff's Office, AMR, and the Tennessee Highway Patrol. THP is leading the investigation.

McMinn County Sheriff's Office Apprehends Fugitive Wanted by SPD

The McMinn County Sheriff's Office recently apprehended a convicted felon wanted by the Sweetwater Police Department following a vehicle pursuit.

Brandon Tindle, who was being sought by SPD, was located and arrested with the help of McMinn County deputies after a coordinated effort between the two agencies. Tindle had fled following a recent pursuit, prompting the joint operation to bring him into custody.

The Sweetwater Police Department expressed gratitude to Sheriff Joe Guy and the McMinn County Sheriff's Office for their assistance and ongoing collaboration.

Authorities emphasize that all suspects are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.

THE EVENT

The UT Extension – McMinn is organizing an Opioid Awareness Day event this summer to raise awareness about the impact of overdoses and honor those lost to addiction.

The event will take place on Sunday, August 31, from 3 to 6 p.m. at the Market Park Pavilion in Athens. The community is invited to attend for an afternoon of remembrance, resources, music, and food.

Organizers are currently seeking agencies and organizations to host resource tables, offering services and information to those attending. In addition, the Extension is collecting digital photos of loved ones lost to overdose for a memorial banner that will be displayed during the event.

For more information or to participate, call 865-228-0321.

Landyn Giles Named to Tennessee's "League of Extraordinary Teens"

Landyn Giles, a student at McMinn Central High School, has officially joined the Governor's Early Literacy Foundation's League of Extraordinary Teens—a statewide initiative that empowers teens to support Imagination Library programs in their communities.

The son of Leighann and Josh Giles, Landyn is known for staying active both in and out of school. He plays on McMinn Central's football and basketball teams, works as a lifeguard at the Englewood Pool, and teaches a youth class at his church. Now, he's taken on a new role—promoting early childhood literacy in McMinn County.

As part of the League, Landyn is working to register local children for the Imagination Library, a program that delivers a free book each month to children from birth to age five. He's also raising funds to cover the cost of one year of books per child, supported locally by the McMinn County Education Foundation. To help cover these expenses, Landyn got creative—using a secret family recipe to make and sell homemade preserves.

Local teens interested in joining the League of Extraordinary Teens can apply by contacting the McMinn County Education Foundation at mcminncef@gmail.com.

Quilts of Valor Presented to Local Veterans at Optimist Club Meeting

At this week's meeting of the Optimist Club of Athens, veterans Charlie Senn and Bill Sikes were honored with Quilts of Valor in recognition of their military service.

The quilts were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cassem as part of the national Quilts of Valor program, which has awarded over 400,000 quilts to veterans across the country since it began in 2003.

Senn served in the U.S. Marine Corps, while Sikes served in both the Navy Reserves and the U.S. Army. The ceremony served as a heartfelt tribute to their dedication and sacrifice.

AUB Customers Can Resume Normal Power Use as TVA Stabilizes Grid

The Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) has stabilized its power supply, allowing Athens Utilities Board (AUB) electric customers to return to normal electricity usage.

The recent call for reduced power came in response to extreme temperatures that placed significant strain on the TVA power system. Thanks to the cooperation of more than 10 million consumers across the region, further disruptions were avoided.

Throughout the shortage, TVA and AUB implemented energy-saving measures such as adjusting thermostats, reducing lighting, and encouraging voluntary conservation during peak hours. TVA also maximized output from all available plants, purchased additional power from neighboring utilities, and temporarily curtailed service to large industrial customers on interruptible contracts.

Crews from both TVA and AUB worked around the clock to maintain service and restore full capacity. AUB extends its thanks to the community for its patience and cooperation during the high-demand period.
